* Excerpt of pertinent information

: George Badu requested a number of Romanian emigres to attend a meeting at which Gabriel Badaran, an associate of Grigore Gafencu, was present. Badaran read aloud a letter relative to the organization of the Romanian National Committee sent by Grigore Gafencu to General Nicolae Radescu on 18 August and which General Radescu then forwarded to King Mihai on 21 August. In this letter Gafencu gave as his reasons for refusing to participate in the Committee of Direction of the Romanian National Committee the failure to enlarge the membership of the Committee and the question of "national funds," which Gafencu contended should be brought under the control of the Romanian National Committee.

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
